OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Tuesday - 23 May 1962

25X1 1. [] talked with David Martin, Staff Assistant to Senator Thomas J. Dodd, and he advised me that the Senator, on Saturday, sent to the Director a confidential note having to do with []. In checking on this, I learned from Mr. Elder that the note had been received and sent to Mr. Helms for action.

25X1 2. []

25X1 3. [] talked with [] OSI, concerning the distribution of a SIC study on Soviet Science and Technology through 1971. I suggested to [] that when the study is approved and published, this office distribute copies to the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy, House and Senate Space Committees, Senate Preparedness Investigating Subcommittee, Joint Economic Committee, and our four subcommittees. [] was in agreement with this and appreciated our suggestions.

25X1 5. [] provided Alfred Nittle, House Committee on Un-American Activities, with a draft press release for use on Thursday in connection with the testimony of []. Advised Nittle that we may amend it by the inclusion of more information late Wednesday afternoon.
